Use of Images and Video Recordings Taken at Events of The R&A

The R&A uses images/video recordings taken at events organised by it to promote those events and other events organised by it, to promote The R&A and its activities and to illustrate The R&A's work in golf, e.g. golf events, golf development activities and education. For these purposes, the use of images/video recordings includes (but is not limited to) advertisements, leaflets, brochures, posters, publications, written press, broadcasts, audio-visual media and internet publications e.g. on websites and social media. The R&A may share the images/video recordings with its group companies, its patrons and sponsors for the above purposes.

All images and video recordings will be held by The R&A in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. The R&A will retain the images until you withdraw your consent. For details of your rights regarding your personal data including the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, please see the privacy policy at www.randa.org.

Withdrawal of Consent

To withdraw consent at any time, please contact The R&A by email at privacy@randa.org If this information is not provided or consent is withdrawn before or during the event, your entry may be voided. The R&A will process your personal information provided on this form or otherwise in accordance with the Participant Privacy Policy at www.randa.org

Persons Aged Under 18 years

The R&A recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all children in golf. As part of our commitment to ensure their safety, The R&A will not permit images or video recordings of a child under 18 years to be used without the consent of the parent/guardian.
